2nd November, 2017

Dear Sir/Madam,

This is in reference to this office notification on discontinuation of dissection of animals issued on 5th August, 2014 followed by letters dated 9th July, 2015 and 17th May, 2016 requesting your university to register with CPCSEA website. In this regard, I am to inform you that there are still some unregistered establishments conducting animal research and not compliant with the guidelines of CPCSEA.

The website of CPCSEA www.cpcsea.nic.in has already been launched and applications for registration are accepted online. You are, therefore, requested to register your university with CPCSEA on priority basis, if not already done. Necessary instructions may also be issued to all the colleges/institutions affiliated to your university, as applicable, in this regard.
